

MARINE CORPS RESERVE GUIDEBOOK

Welcome to the Marine Corps Reserves! This Guidebook is intended to provide an overview of programs, policies, and procedures within the Marine Corps Reserve. The information provided is organized into nine sections covering a background perspective of the Marine Corps Reserve, general obligations of reserve Marines, assignments and participation, planning and training, mobilization and deployment, career planning, education, promotion, and benefits and entitlements.

The opportunities available within the Marine Corps Reserves are numerous. We encourage you keep this guidebook handy for future reference, as it contains important contacts as well as other helpful information. As an additional convenience, this guidebook is also available on the world wide web (<http://mcrsc.mfr.usmc.mil/>). More detailed information can be found by consulting your local Prior Service Recruiter or Reserve Support Unit.

If you have suggestions or comments on any of the material covered in this Guidebook (such as information not included that you believe to be important), please contact us at the Marine Corps Reserve Support Command (MCRSC) at e-mail reserveguidebook@mfr.usmc.mil or phone 1-800-255-5082. You may also send your comments and suggestions by facsimile at (816) 843-3045 (Attn: G-1/Guidebook), or mail your comments to us at MCRSC (Attn: G-1/Guidebook) 15303 Andrews Road, Kansas City, MO 64147-1207.
